An account of the fate of American prisoners of war from the time they were captured until they were established in fairly permanent camps See also Bahá'í Faith in Turkmenistan.. The first Bahá'í House of Worship was built in the city of 'Ishqábád, then ruled by Russia and now the capital of Turkmenistan. It was started in 1902 and completed in 1908. The design was prepared by Ostad Ali-Akbar Banna, and the construction was supervised by Vakílu'd-Dawlih, later named one of the nineteen Apostles of Bahá'u'lláh. Restaurant Lohninger – Home and World. You always hear that opening a restaurant of one's own means the fulfilment of a dream. As corny as it may sound, that is exactly what happened when we opened Restaurant Lohninger in the spring of 2010 right by the Main river in Frankfurt. Written in 1948, 1984 was George Orwell's chilling prophecy about the future. And while 1984 has come and gone, his dystopian vision of a government that will do anything to control the narrative is timelier than ever...
