

Download Australia's Underwater Wilderness

Biography. Ron began diving in 1952, became interested in spearfishing and underwater photography and in 1965, he won the World Spearfishing Championship in Tahiti after winning the Australian Open Spearfishing Championships for four years in succession. Valerie was born in Sydney, started diving in 1956 and spearfishing in 1960, eventually winning several Australian championships for ladies ...People have always been captivated by what is underwater. There are shipwrecks, museums, temples, hotels, and restaurants, to name a few, all underwater that are truly worth diving for. Escape, Fish, Dive the Mackerel Islands off Western Australia's Pilbara coast. Be warned! Extreme relaxation may occur. Embark on a journey to the northern coast of Western Australia and explore the vast untouched wilderness. This luxury cruise offers a once in a lifetime experience to experience a region overflowing with exotic wildlife, thriving coral reefs and aboriginal culture. Book today.