Rome was the law-giver for much of the modern world. She was also the greatest military power of antiquity, operating her military organization with remarkable efficiency and effectiveness throughout most of the then-known world. Law school casebook intended as an introduction to the field of employment discrimination law, both at the abstract level of theory and at the concrete level of doctrine. As much an introduction for experienced lawyers and scholars who come to this field with a thorough knowledge of other aspects of the law as for law students who have just begun preparing for their careers. You normally take the Multistate Performance Test (MPT) on the afternoon of the first day of the bar exam (some states reverse the order and have you do the MPT before the essays). It's worth 20% of your total score. The MPT has two 90-minute tasks. Unlike the multiple choice and essay portions of the bar exam, you don't need to memorize substantive law to rock the MPT.
