For placement definitions and types, see the Placement Process Resource Guide – Placement Types and Definitions.. 4100 The Placement Process Long-Term Outcomes Report. This report, titled Family Options Study: Long-Term Impacts of Housing and Services Interventions for Homeless Families, presents the long-term outcomes of the 2,282 families enrolled in the Family Options Study, a multi-site random assignment experiment designed to study the impact of various housing and services interventions on homeless families. Are you surprised, shocked, and dismayed to find that your long-distant past is being held against you in a CPS case? This is common practice for child protective services social workers. Box and Cox (1964) developed the transformation. Estimation of any Box-Cox parameters is by maximum likelihood. Box and Cox (1964) offered an example in which the data had the form of survival times but the underlying biological structure was of hazard rates, and the transformation identified this.
