International Cruise Victims is a not-for-profit organization of victims and family members of victims who were injured while on a commercial cruise ship voyage. A cruise ship is a passenger ship used for pleasure voyages when the voyage itself, the ship's amenities, and sometimes the different destinations along the way (i.e., ports of call), form part of the passengers' experience. Transportation is not the only purpose of cruising, particularly on cruises that return passengers to their originating port (known [by whom?] as "closed-loop cruises"). Locate a Travel Advisor. As you go through the site, it's possible that you may have questions or just feel like talking directly to a travel advisor. The world's most comprehensive selection of cruise ship models is here.
