

Download Frances Hodgkins Paintings And Drawings

Frances had advertised for art pupils in London and hoped to gather a group of five. Two students joined her at her Pennock's Hotel and she set about finding suitable images of the town and its people to paint. ... Frances Hodgkins: Paintings and Drawings (Auckland University Press, 2001) Plate 19, p. 124. The paintings and drawings by Frances Hodgkins. Auckland City Art Gallery, April 1959. Foreword by P.A. Tomory, introductory essay by Colin McCahon; Catalogue lists 48 works with notes, and includes 12 plates, two in colour; Publication details. Year: 1959 Pages: 28. Be in the know. Frances Hodgkins was recognized by her contemporaries in the 1930s and 1940s as a leading member of the British avant-garde who exhibited often with artists such as John Piper. FOLLOWING FRANCES ? Every year during his trip to England Jonathan makes time to seek out a location or two where Frances Hodgkins lived and painted. Following Frances is a series of vignettes which will present original paintings by Hodgkins alongside photographs taken by Jonathan of the same view or location in the present day.