In many articles, books, or pamphlets on the origins debate, one is almost certain to come across a statement such as, "What we should conclude is that St. Augustine was quite ahead of his time and made steps toward the ideas that evolutionary biologists are discovering today. . ." (Augustine on Evolution) [1], or "St. Augustine seems to have affirmed a ... Throughout history, a variety of famous people have lent their names to shades of brilliant blue, shocking purple, grassy green, muddy brown, and other hues." "It wasn't a fair universe, nor a kind one. If there was a God, his love and forty-five cents would buy you coffee. No one seemed to be at the cosmic controls anymore.
