"Michael's story of sobriety and having a child has been great," USA Swimming coach David Marsh tells PEOPLE. "It's the right time for him to show leadership." Last month Phelps' teammates named him co-captain, a surprising first for the athlete regarded as the greatest swimmer of all time. Many viewed it as a response to the more humble, appreciative Phelps his teammates saw after he completed rehab. "He cracked out of his shell," sister Hillary Phelps tells PEOPLE. Phelps knew that he had to win each race to hold the public's interest. This would be very difficult. Over the course of nine days, he would be swimming in seventeen races counting semifinal and final events. Some of these were back-to-back. It would take Chapter 5 PIN Michael Phelps v4:Layout 1 6/15/10 1:06 PM Page 68, Michael Phelps People In The News.
