

Download San Lorenzo

A true taste of Tuscany in Shaw Chef Massimo Fabbri takes exceptional pride in presenting his culinary creations, and San Lorenzo Ristorante + Bar — DC's NEWEST anticipated eatery — is no exception! San Lorenzo, also known as San Lorenzo Village, is a census-designated place (CDP) located in the East Bay of the San Francisco Bay Area in Alameda County, California, United States. The population was 23,452 at the 2010 census. It is an unincorporated community, located at the banks of San Lorenzo Creek. It was originally named Squattersville in 1851, but later renamed to San Lorenzo. San Lorenzo Unified School District has partnered with ESS, a leading education staffing company that places talented substitute teachers and support staff. History. San Lorenzo was founded in 1737 under the name San Miguel de Hato Grande by Valeriano Muñoz de Oneca from Seville, Spain. The original settlers of the then-village were the Muñoz de Oneca, López de Alicea, and Sánchez de Coz families.