Teaching Tolerance provides free resources to educators—teachers, administrators, counselors and other practitioners—who work with children from kindergarten through high school. Educators use our materials to supplement the curriculum, to inform their practices, and to create civil and inclusive school communities where children are respected, valued and welcome participants. We help clients achieve program impact by integrating strategic planning, performance monitoring, comprehensive evaluations and research into a continuous learning cycle. Graduation Requirements 24 total credits, including requirements in Applied Arts, Language Arts, Science, Social Studies, Math, Health and P.E.
